GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

An Indignant Governor.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 25.—Gov. Hampton has addressed a letter to Gov. Rice of Massachusetts regarding the refusal of the latter to surrender Hiram H. Kempton for trial in South Carolina. Gov. Hampton says:

I regret that the chief executive of the great State of Massachusetts should have committed so flagrant a violation of the supreme law of the land as your refusal to give a simple refusal to surrender the fugitive I should make no further comment upon your letter. The executive authority of one state concerns the whole people of the United States, but inasmuch as you have seen fit to base your action on the ground that in your opinion the object in procuring an indictment against Patterson, Parker and Kempton does not appear to be for the purpose of trying Kemper for the crime charged against him, but for a different crime to be charged against Patterson, it is my duty as governor of South Carolina to say that your statement is entirely unwarranted by the facts, and to add that I repel it as an unworthy imputation and do with indignant scorn.

Important Testimony in the Case of the U. S. vs. Samuel J. Tilden Stolen—Tilden's Counsel Implicated in the Matter.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The Tribune's Marquette, Michigan, special says that an examination of witnesses was proceeding there to secure testimony in the case of the United States vs. Samuel J. Tilden to recover a deficiency in his taxes. In the course of the examination certain books containing accounts of the New York Iron Mine were being used. Tilden's counsel, the Hon. Thos. Harland, of New York, handled the books during the proceedings and laid them on a pile near the door. At about half past 9 o'clock, as the commissioner was quietly proceeding with the depositions, two men suddenly rushed into the room, one covering the other by standing himself between the books and the officers, while the other passed the books to a confederate on the stairway. At this juncture Mr. Wetmore, the witness, pursued the latter to the foot of the stairs, but by means of a carriage standing ready, the villain escaped under cover of the night. As soon as the papers could be issued, over which there was some delay owing to the lateness of the hour, mounted officers started in pursuit, but succeeded only in overtaking the carriage about two hours after the robbery. It is said the evidence being procured from the books was making an overwhelming case against Tilden and necessitated a resort to desperate means on the part of Tilden's counsel.

Annual Meeting of the N. P. R. R. Co.—A Good Showing.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company was held to day. The annual report of the directors was read, showing that the business of the road was increasing satisfactorily. The following is a synopsis:

The earnings for the year were $1,193,231; and the expenses were $651,302, leaving a net balance of $541,929, or a net increase of $109,351 over last year. The several divisions of the road have been operated without accident and maintained in good order, and the condition of the road is 25% up to the average of railroads in the country. On account of wear and tear, 140 miles of new rails will have to be laid between Brainerd and Sarp. The operations of the land department have been active, three quarters of a million of acres being disposed of. The report says that in 38 counties of Minnesota and seven counties of Dakota intersected by this road, the area in cultivation this year was 250,000 acres, of which 150,000 acres were in wheat; and the new breaking already accomplished in the same counties will add 80,000 acres for next year's crop. Population has increased 40 per cent in nine months, and the wheat product has been more bountiful. For the use of 749,833 acres of land there were received $1,191,622, and timber sales in the Minnesota and Dakota divisions have realized $24,360.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 25.—The Democratic State Convention met at Faneuil Hall to-day pursuant to adjournment, ordered by the committee at Worcester. Admission to the galleries was gained only by tickets furnished by the state central committee. Edward Avery called the convention to order. The usual committees were appointed, and also a committee to report a list of credentials other than Governor. General John S. Whitney, who was appointed chairman, in his address to the delegates, said:

No mob can here interfere with your legislation; no ruffian threats of bloodshed and the use of brute force can shape or in the slightest degree influence your action; no such action as that which in the dozen of Mechanics' hall, against Worcester, will ever emanate from the honorable mayor of Boston, no: not yet are all our cities and towns given over and enslaved by the mobs which follow a self-constituted and unmaterial chief, that the regular delegates to the state Democratic convention shall be informed in writing that a mob cannot be removed from the hall per engaged by the regular Democratic state convention.

J. G. Abbott was then nominated for governor by acclamation.

The committee on nominations reported the remainder of the ticket. The report adopted was as follows: For lieutenant governor, Wm. B. Pinckett; secretary of state, Henry C. Dewing; treasurer and receiver, Gen. David N. Skilling; auditor, Jno. E. Fitzgerald; attorney general, Richard Olney.

If nothing is heard from the secretary of war by to morrow morning the committee will meet and adjourn sine die.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The Hungarian Radicals.

VIENNA, Sept. 25.—Hungarian radicals hold mass meetings at Pesth on Sunday next to protest against the occupation of Bosnia. Deputies Kelly and Simonyi lead government resolutions to be submitted declaring that the occupation of Bosnia will be fatal to the Hungarian protest against the sacrifice of Hungarian blood and money against their wishes, and demand the withdrawal of troops from Bosnia, and declare their intention to organize a movement to petition the Hungarian diet with an impeachment of the Tisza cabinet. The agitation is regarded as a party manœuvre. Prague deputies belonging to the old Czech party for the past ten years have abstained from participating in the proceedings. The Bohemian diet yesterday took their seats and declared that while adhering to their former protests, they are willing to make an effort to obtain their ends by conciliatory methods.

A Decisive Movement.

The Austrians have occupied Czwornik, thus virtually completing the pacification of Bosnia.

It is considered certain that a move will be made thence on Candahar, which would cut off communications between Cabul and Herat. Simultaneously with this movement, 6,000 men will go to Kohat, and it is believed will enter Afghanistan by the Koram valley, whilst a third column will traverse Khyber pass. Settled at Last.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—The Patrie says: "We learn that difficulties between France, England and the United States relative to the New Foundland fisheries have been arranged." The entire cabinet are now drawing up a convention which will obviate all future disagreement.

HUNTED TO HIS DEATH.

Referring to the murder which took place here last week the Seattle Dispatch, Mr. Beriah Brown's paper, says:

Under ordinary circumstances, in a purely personal difficulty, we should consider all comment properly barred while judicial proceedings are pending, but this is a case in which statute laws fail to meet the ends of justice, and public sentiment can alone mete out the measure of punishment as well as the check to a repetition of like offences. "Law is mind without passion," it is mathematical, not sentimental. It admits of no lawless resentment or remedy under the most stinging provocation. The blackguard and bully may sting a sensitive man to madness in a way in which he has no lawful redress, and deliberately shoot him down like a dog, if he offers unlawful violence as the only means of resenting a deadly insult. That was literally the case under consideration. Macdonald, the murdered man, was a journalist who by unsuccessful venture, and not through vicious indulgences or dishonest practices, was put in a condition to meet promptly his pecuniary liabilities, but was working industriously and manfully to support himself and a worthy family dependent upon him. A rival journal, notorious chiefly for its reckless personalities, employed the Bohemian, Mercer, as a mere bullying assassin to assail the reputation and thus impair the business of Macdonald. His pecuniary failures, with which the public had no concern, were hunted up and published, and his personal habits and characteristics, which were of no concern to anybody but himself, were held up to public odium; and when all this failed, his unoffending wife, a woman of refinement and sensibility, was made the subject of ribald jes. This was such an outrage as no decent husband or father can fail to resent in some manner. That Mercer knew he was offering a deadly insult which no man of ordinary spirit could fail to resent was manifested by his arming himself for the conflict, and using his pistol for a murderous purpose before his life was imperilled. The law may acquit him of murder on the plea of "self defense," but in our view, from a moral stand-point, a more cowardly murder was never committed, and every person who hereafter aids, supports, encourages and countenances the vile journal which instigated the deed by which an estimable wife was widowed and an innocent child orphaned, dabbles their hands in the blood of the slain. The murdered man was deliberately hunted to his death; driven to bay, where his cowardly assailant could kill him without incurring the penalty of murder. Such is the character of licentious journalism. Its victims are assailed in their dearest rights and most sacred sentiments, and left only the alternative of public infamy or death. Let a decent public sentiment vindicate itself on this occasion. The character of the press demands it."

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

The San Francisco French Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Mr. Dussel, acting manager of the French savings bank, states that the accounts have been straightened out by the directors, but the business has not yet been looted up. Julian Avery Keefe, who was convicted yesterday in the city criminal court of visiting gambling houses, this morning cut his throat from ear to ear at his lodgings on Montgomery avenue, near Dupont street. He is still alive, but cannot recover. He is a printer by trade, aged 31, and stated after his conviction that he was ruined, and the act is doubtless attributable to that.

SAN FRANCISCO Sept. 26.—Dr. O'Donnell, who was arrested for obstructing the street by the exhibition of lepers on two occasions, was before the city criminal court this morning on hearing of the first charge. He appeared, bringing with him five Chinese lepers to show the court and jury. The court immediately ordered the case continued, and the lepers were hustled out without ceremony. Subsequently, the second charge against the doctor was called and dismissed instanter.

BONDS TO BE SAT LEN.

SEPT. 27, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Is not something to be done by the sitting legislature to protect the interests of the treasury and the state in the matter of the bonds of insurance companies? There are, I believe, nearly a million of dollars of these bonds in the state's safe, and sooner or later they will be stolen and the state have the loss to account for. It is a wonder they have not been already stolen. In addition to this the state is now paying its treasurer about $1,500 per year from the taxes of the people for letting these bonds lie in the state's safe. It has been doing this ever since the present law, in the interest of the insurance companies and state treasurers, was enacted. The deposit of bonds is of no benefit to the state or local insurer, while the former is made to pay one-half per cent. on the bonds to its treasurer, and the latter a stamp tax which the insurance company places upon his policy and charges him with, while the company pays no tax whatever. The law should be repealed altogether—always providing the insurance companies and treasurers will permit.

CITIZEN.

The Fault-Finding "Farmer."

That "farmer" again puts in his complaint to the Hillsboro Independent. He says he didn't find the home market for wheat quoted in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN of Sept. 21. He must be a very dull or a very uncandid person. Other readers had no difficulty in finding the following in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN of the 21st September:

The bottom of the recent decline in wheat, $1 50 per cental, has been reached, and at this date $1 55 is eagerly paid, and the tendency is upward. During the week several large transfers have been made at the latter figure. The receipts are fair, but are hardly equal to those of the date of last year corresponding. Farmers have confidence in the market maintaining its present standing, if not going higher, and are not inclined to sell. Much of the grain brought in has gone into warehouse.

Senator Slater is for Good Money.

[From the Alta California.]

It is comforting to be told that one man who has been elected to the United States senate for six years, from the 4th of next March, has not been carried away by the specious arguments of those who would throw away real values and rest the fortunes of the country upon fictions and follies. Although the new senator is a Slater, he does not follow the slate as fixed up by the possible, if not probable, Democratic candidate for the presidency, Mr. Thurman. Mr. Slater does not believe that there should be further issues of currency to again unsettle values after—through losses and doubts, depressions and fluctuations—our present volume of currency has been brought up to nearly par with gold.

The Political Situation.

[From the Chicago Times.]

The Republican leaders in Washington are said to be greatly disheartened by the result of the Maine election, and certainly they have some reason for discouragement; but they are not so badly off as the Democrats, after all; for the latter seem to be in danger of complete absorption by the hungry greenbackers. They appear to be unconscious of this danger, however, and are as busily engaged in planning the division of the spoils of the next congress as if the Greenback party were a myth. They will probably have a painful awakening from their present delusion before the middle of November.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 27, 1878.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

It is highly important for our state that the legislature should make no mistake in such recommendations as it may present to congress in regard to the Northern Pacific railroad. Our hope for a road depends mainly on this enterprise. There is no other that offers any present prospect. We should be careful to do nothing that will cause the company any further embarrassment. All that is necessary is to give them a chance. They are just now putting under contract a section of 205 miles of road from the Missouri to the Yellowstone, and if they can obtain renewal of the grant of lands they will begin next year to build on the Pacific slope. But they never can build under the bill which passed the senate last session, and will not try. The company distinctly reject that bill, because it would be without value to them. It would be a mistake if our legislature should memorialize congress to pass it. The requirement that the road shall be built on the south side of the Columbia river and that the land shall be sold at $2 50 an acre will answer every reasonable want of Oregon. These points the company have always been willing to concede. Other conditions in the senate bill are onerous to the company and cannot be accepted. This has been explained often enough. Our legislature, therefore, should not endorse the senate bill.

It has been given out by persons working on the Mitchell programme of opposition to the road that the senate bill was really acceptable to the company, and was only opposed by a ring within the corporation which is working for its own special and selfish ends. Also, that upon the next election of directors this ring would be ousted and a board of directors favorable to the Mitchell propositions would be chosen. The idea has been industriously propagated by several persons, and if we are mistaken, by Mr. J. B. Montgomery among the rest, that the board during the past year has not represented the wishes of the stockholders. How erroneous this judgment is may now be proven by the fact that on Wednesday last at the annual meeting the entire board was re-elected, and re-elected without opposition. It does, therefore, represent the company, and any other statement is part of a scheme and purpose to embarrass the enterprise.

The company are now earning a net surplus of nearly a million dollars a year. Before any great time elapses the earnings will far exceed this annual sum. It is a growing enterprise, and can and will succeed. As Oregon wants connection through an independent line of railway, the state should not hinder or obstruct the undertaking in any way. An injudicious memorial to congress might do harm, and every proposition that may be submitted should be carefully considered.

STATE EQUALIZATION.

The subject of assessment and taxation begins to receive in the legislature the attention it ought. We presented the other day a synopsis of Senator Watt's bill to define more clearly the duties of county assessors, etc. Another bill is offered by Senator George for an act to provide for equal and uniform taxation, and for the equalization of state taxation among the several counties. The two bills may consistently become parts of a uniform system. That of Mr. Watt contains provisions directing the manner of making assessments, and providing remedies for abuses in deductions of indebtedness and other particulars, while that of Mr. George proposes a method for making each county pay its share of state taxes according to the actual value of its property. This last mentioned bill proposes to direct the governor to appoint a state tax commissioner, who shall have power to equalize and adjust assessments, and who shall transmit a certified copy of such roll, with full statement of reasons for the equalization and adjustment to the clerk of each county. Provision is also made for hearing appeal from any county when its equalized valuation is deemed by the county court to be excessive. It is also to be made the duty of the secretary of state "in one of the two intervening years between the regular sessions of the legislature to apportion to each county its proportion thereof of the aggregate of all appropriations made for that year out of the general fund during the entire session of the preceding legislature according to the proportion which the equalized assessment of each county bears to equalized assessment of all the counties in the aggregate, and to notify the county clerk of each county of the amount apportioned to said county, and the said amount apportioned to each shall be deemed a tax levied on the real and personal property therein, which said amount the county shall pay to the state as taxes are now paid, and said tax shall be applied only on the separate specific appropriations of said session of the legislature, and the next year he shall apportion the remaining appropriations made out of the general fund for the second year thereof, according to the same provisions and with like force and effect in every respect as with the appropriations of the first year, and in case of any appropriations of the general fund made by any called session of the legislature, in either of the two years, the same also shall be apportioned at any time thereafter according to the same provisions and with like force and effect." We like the general features of this bill. Heretofore there has been objection that an equalized assessment at cash valuation would bring money into the treasury and bank it up there to be squandered by prodigal legislatures. But this act will apportion the appropriations actually made so as to give each county only its share of the burden, and there will be no surplus to be wasted. It will, besides, call public attention each year to the extent of appropriations, and thus will do a service. We hope it may pass, as well as the bill offered by Senator Watt.

It is not worth while for THE OREGONIAN to follow the Catholic Sentinel through its many columns of entirely stupid and irrelevant matter on the subject of last week's discussion. From the first we realized that any person who takes issue with the editor's exposition of dogmatic theology subjects himself to the editor's charge of "infidelity." Any "doxy" other than his own is heterodoxy, of course. But the world no longer yields unquestioning obedience to mediæval ecclesiasticism; and the great body of cultivated Catholics are as far from it as any others. The Sentinel, attempting to answer our statement that "yellow fever is a physical fact," says: "Death is a 'physical fact,' yet every Christian believes that it has a supernatural cause, and can be averted by prayer." With due submission to the Sentinel's theological infallibility, Christians do not believe any such thing. All men know that all men are mortal. Reason and faith each has its own province; they never were made to destroy each other and leave as a residuum a foolish superstition. It is extremely unfortunate when one has not intellectual range enough to make the recognized facts of science and of actual experience harmonize with a rational and intelligent religious belief.

W. S. Chapman now says: "If Mercer did not obtain the notes from E. K. Chapman he lied to us." Isn't it a little late, considering all the consequences, to make this discovery or rather confession? Besides, how could the fact that Mercer has lied relieve W. S. Chapman of the least part of his responsibility? It was Chapman who wrote and published the matter, not Mercer. Of course they conspired together in the infamy; and Chapman found in Mercer just such an agent as suited his own desires and the character of the publication of which he is "editor." All that it is necessary to add here in regard to W. S. Chapman is his own statement that he "trusted Mercer as a friend as well as an employed agent." Such "friends" and "agents" are fit for Chapman and his publication. They are chosen on the principle of natural selection.

Mr. F. W. Chapman, brother of E. K. Chapman of San Francisco, who has been a resident of Portland for the past three months, called upon us yesterday with other letters from his brother on the unauthorized use of his name in the Macdonald affair. W. S. Chapman having stated that he had notes on the subject in the handwriting of E. K. Chapman, F. W. Chapman called upon him and demanded to see the "notes." They were not in his brother's handwriting, of course. It is most improbable that W. S. Chapman did not know that they were fabrications from the beginning. But even if he had been imposed upon his responsibility is not diminished. And now that he pretends that Mercer is most to blame let Mercer respond by giving the public a full inside history of Chapman's agency in the affair.

Will the mayor of the city send to the common council at its very next meeting the name of some one to fill the office of city surveyor, now held by W. S. Chapman? Shall this man, copartner with J. K. Mercer in a damning conspiracy, which has fabricated villainous lies against an honorable man and taken his life, be suffered to disgrace the city of Portland by holding office under it?

CITY.

CHINESE FUNERAL.—Wong Wy, a member of the Chinese firm of Hop, Wa & Co., died on Wednesday from natural causes. He was prominent in an organization which, among the Chinese, corresponds to our Masonic order; and under its auspices his funeral was conducted yesterday with splurge and ostentation unusual and striking. At an early hour a Chinese band of music commenced a discordant din at the late home of the deceased and continued it with direful effect for some hours, until the cortege passed over the river to the cemetery. The procession which passed through the streets was "a sight to see." First came two mounted Chinamen in fantastic rig; then came the hearse closely followed by mercenary mourners who walked with uncovered heads and shoeless feet, supported on either side by friends, and obviously suffering from a prime article of "deceased." Next came an express wagon containing personal effects of the deceased, for deposit upon this grave; and following this came several wagons and hacks full of Chinese. The last division of the procession consisted of a priest of Josh attended by a large number of lesser ministers dressed in the somewhat striking and gaudy regalia of their office, and bearing many banners "of a strange device" and a large quantity of delicacies called funeral "meats and "goodies." The chinese spectacle attracted many hundreds of spectators.

ALPHA ENSTITON.—The members of the Alpha Literary Society entertained a goodly number of their friends at the society parlors on Wednesday evening. About seventy-five persons, including members of the society and invited guests, were present. Early in the evening a programme of rarely good musical and literary exercises were produced; and were made doubly interesting by the helpful adjuncts of good musical accompaniment and convenient "stage effects." The programme consisted of a reading by Miss Nellie Waltz, a vocal solo by Miss Lamberson, a reading by Miss Ella Dickenson, a declamation by Mr. Grover Simpson; a vocal duet by Misses Emma Dickenson and Nellie Waltz, a character sketch by Miss Etta Kelly and Mr. John Gill; a recitation by Miss Clara Olds, a reading by Mr. McKulsky and a chorus by the members of the society. Later in the evening, at supper, toasts were given. Mr. Oscar Heintz acting as master. He proposed "Our Country;" response by Mr. Wm. M. Simpson. Miss Etta Kelly proposed "the Bachelors;" response by Mr. McKulsky. Mr. John Wilcox proposed "The Ladies;" response by Mr. Alfred Holman, and Mr. John Gill proposed "Our Visitors," to which Mr. James McCraken responded. The affair throughout was throughly pleasant and greatly enjoyed.

THE H. AND H. SOCIETY.—At a recent meeting of the directors of the Handel and Haydn Society it was resolved that the opening concert should be given on Friday evening, October 4th, at which "Farmer's Mass" in D flat will be rendered with full chorus and orchestra, in addition to which a miscellaneous second part will be given, in which we shall hear the sextette from "Lucia," Sir Henry Bishop's celebrated "Tramp Chorus," a trio for zither, violin and guitar, bass aria "Honor and Arms" (from Samson) and the finale to the third act of "Martha." This is certainly much the best programme ever put forward in this city, and from the impression received at a late rehearsal, everything will be in near perfection as constant rehearsals and careful drilling by the efficient conductor, Mr. W. H. Kinross, can make it. It was also determined at the directors' meeting that the subject of study for their second concert, which will take place Christmas week, will be Haydn's oratorio of the "Creation," complete. And for the two concerts to follow during this season, in all probability "The Bohemian Girl" for the third, and the cantata of "Miriam's Feast" for the fourth.

THE LAST SCHOONER.—The schooner Phil Sheridan, recently collided with "the Queen," and sunk, was a fore-and-aft schooner of 60 tons burden. She was worth $2,000, and the only insurance on her was $1,000. As she was in ballast, there was no loss by cargo. Capt. Bott and two others named Thompson and Brown were the owners.

BOARD OF TRADE.

ADJOURNED MEETING, SEPT. 25, 1878.

Board of trade meeting was held Wednesday evening at 8 P. M. at the board rooms in Ankeny's building, Hon. H. W. Corbett, president, in the chair, Secretary Wm. Reid also present.

Meeting being called to order, minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Letter from W. W. Parker, mayor of Astoria, as to sail pilots on the Columbia bar, was read and referred to the committee on navigation.

Mr. Bowen, from the committee on navigation, presented the following bill as a substitute for a former bill as to the appointment of a harbor master for Portland:

HARBOR MASTER.

A bill to provide for the appointment of a harbor master at Portland, with jurisdiction on the Willamette within the city limits of Portland and East Portland.

Section 1. An appointment of a harbor master who shall be experienced in nautical affairs, and a resident of Portland, is hereby created who shall be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the board of trade, and to hold his office during the pleasure of the governor.

Sec. 2. The jurisdiction of said harbor master shall embrace both sides of the river within the city limits of Portland and East Portland.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the harbor master to see that a right of way be opened and maintained for river and other vessels, to secure which he shall be and is hereby empowered to order all slups to be moored clear of said passage with their yards and spars in such condition as he may order, in order to prevent collision and entanglement with other vessels towing up and down the river, or river craft, or other vessel.

Sec. 4. The harbor master to have the power to compel all vessels lying in the stream to burn and exhibit a bright, mast light or lights in such part of the vessels as he may determine, and any master so neglecting shall be liable to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each offense, to be levied by any court of competent jurisdiction and to be paid into the treasury of Multnomah county.

Sec. 5. The harbor master to have entire control and authority in the berthing, shifting and removal of vessels from one wharf or dock to another, acting in concert or with the approval of the owners of such wharves or docks.

Sec. 7. The harbor master shall keep in suitable books a record of all moneys received and disbursed by him under the provisions of this act. He shall on the first Monday of February and August in each year, file in the office of the secretary of state a statement containing the names of all vessels and steamers of every description which have arrived at and departed from Portland during the preceding six months, their registered tonnage, nationality and draft of water, including the number of their crews, with an account of all moneys received and disbursed by him, and the source from which the same were received, and the purposes for which said moneys were applied and paid out.

Sec. 8. That a tax of one cent per register ton, to be called "harbor dues," be, and the same is hereby levied on all foreign and coasting vessels entering and departing from the Willamette river, as also on all seagoing steamers arriving at or departing from Portland, it being understood, however, that no vessel, coaster or steamer shall pay such harbor dues more than once each year.

Sec. 9. The salary of the harbor master shall not exceed fifty dollars per month, in full of charges for office rent, boat hire or other expenses. Any surplus arising as between the sum collected for harbor dues and the amount paid to the harbor master as salary, shall be paid over to the state treasurer, to be disposed of from time to time as may be determined by the legislature.

Sec. 10. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of the district attorney to give such legal advice and render such legal service and assistance in enforcing, and may be required by the harbor master in carrying out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 11. Inasmuch as there is no harbor master at Portland at present this act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

Mr. Henry Failing while approving of the appointment of a harbor master was of opinion that the common council had that power already in its city charter, and that perhaps it was the proper body to appoint a harbor master instead of the legislature. After some discussion, in which various members took part, it was moved that the proposed harbor master bill be referred to the legislative committee to look into the matter and take such action as may be deemed necessary.

The special committee to whom was entrusted the matter of a bankrupt law reported as follows:

PORTLAND, Sept. 25, 1878.

To the Board of Trade: GENTLEMEN—Your committee to whom was referred the subject of a bankrupt law, has had the same under consideration and most respectfully report after seeing part of the Multnomah delegation that there seems to be quite a diversity of opinion in the legislature upon the subject of such a law, and in consequence of the limited time to prepare a bill to accomplish the objects desired we deem it too late now to attempt to frame and get passed a bankrupt bill during the present legislature.

We would, however, recommend that our delegation be asked to see that a clause is inserted in S. B. No 9, Mr. Lord's bill on assignments, now in the senate, to the effect that all creditors attaching within sixty days after the first creditor has attached shall have for all debts due or to become due a pro rata dividend and share equally in the fund or property attached. Respectfully submitted

H. W. CORBETT,
W. W. FRANCIS,
J. McCRAKEN,
WILLIAM REID,
HENRY FAILING,
Committee.

The committee's report with a slight alteration was adopted, and the secretary was instructed respectfully to inform Senator Lord (from Marion county), the framer of the bill referred to, of the board's recommendation, and express their views and ask his permission to adopt this amendment in his bill and notify the delegation from Multnomah of same.

The Liver is the large fat organ of the whole human system, and controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed or improperly acting all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The functions of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all cases of the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR.

Fourth Day.

HILLSBORO, Sept. 26, 1878.

A ride from Portland on a 3d. car, with rough boards for seats, and those arranged so as to require systematic skill to move among them, has shown me one reason why no more Portlanders attend the Washington county fair. The one coach was well filled, but people preferred staying at home to riding in the open air on so rough an outfit, though morning mists and evening dews. If the railroad company would take the pains to provide comfortable conveyances, no doubt their patronage would be doubled. Even a couple of boards' work on the cars they use would render the trip endurable, and we all hope to see something better provided next time.

The weather this day has been cool though not cold, and I suppose this to be the 3,000th time the same remark has been made during the day.

I must here do justice to the exhibits in at least one class, by admitting that my remarks about slackness in bringing out articles does not apply to breeders of swine, and that sheep and represented well, though by too few competitors. Thos. Withycombe has a splendid lot of Poland Chinas, among them one imported sow, bought at a high price in the east, but whose descendants in Oregon surpass her in every distinctive point of this type of hog. Hon. Jesse Moore exhibits a very large log of this breed. J. H. Rowell has some very good ones. James Withycombe has some pens of Berkshires that will be hard to beat among any part of the state. J. D. Rowell and I. H. Tongue have each a few fine animals which to-day sport their blue ribbons after an honorable competition.

SHEEP.

Though but two flocks, are very well represented. Thomas Withycombe is ringing out the Spanish merino and James Withycombe the Cotswold. Among the number is a thoroughbred merino buck and a famous Cotswold, whose full brother (no better than he) furnished the clip that took the gold medal at the U. S. Centennial. Disputes ran high at the merits of the two bucks and their respective breeds, and finally a trifle was waged between the two brothers Withycombe as to whose sheep would use the harvest fleece. The wool was shorn under the inspection of judges agreed upon, and each sheep gave over twenty pounds, the Cotswold being two ounces ahead. Pretty good for sheep that have been shorn regularly last year and not had special care.

J. Bruce shows a pair of full blooded Angora goats and another of grades, which are all good animals. These creatures are coming into competition with the Asiatics. They will kill a patch of brush as effectually as a Chicago fire, and by taking a few years' time to it, land can be cleared almost without labor.

Besides the cattle I mentioned yesterday Major Bruce has three Jersey cows and a calf and Thos. Withycombe has a Jersey bull which would take his prize as easily with ordinary opposition as he did to day with none. A couple of pair of turkeys were added to the poultry, and that completed the outside show.

THE RACE FOR 2 YEAR OLDS

Was expected to be the event of the day. For this Hurly Wilty named g h Geo. Woods and N. Westfall named b m Lizzie Tilden. This is a pair of handsome young horses, the gray long limbed, clean and like as a greyhound; the bay compact, merry, quick as a cat. The gray had run with the 3 year olds, making a close second in 2:32 with no trouble at all, and as pools were offered at almost any odds on the bay mare, the unsophisticated people from the rural districts expected to see a lively time. These amiable admirers of the horse have an idea that the fastest running horse can come out ahead in a race. But those of them who sometimes back their judgment remained to get the experience of the day before and pools sold very slowly.

The horses were called up for

THE RACE.

And sent off in good style, but the mare flew the track and tried all around the first turn to get to her stables. Meantime the gray went along at a hand gallop until the mare could be got down to her work, when she showed some good running on the back stretch. Half way up the hill she broke and almost fell, necessitating another halt on the part of the Governor. On the home stretch the mare passed to the front, the gray hard bulled at her flank, the judges, after some consultation, awarded the heat to the mare, and no place to the horse, for the reason that he was not run. Time, including stoppages, 2:07.

The popular verdict was that the penalty was not severe enough. The society pays its money for an exhibition of what horses can do, and not for a gambling device with a soft thing in it, and the patrons pay their money to see a trial of speed of horses, not of experness in selling pools. The dodge is the legitimate and useful business of agricultural societies, the other the bane of all such institutions, and is doing them harm every year.

THE TROTTING RACE

Was another scheme to draw a purse without showing speed. L. Lindsay named Mystery, W. Tennant named ——. I have forgotten the name, but it is of no consequence. It is Lee Knott's brown mare. The mare went to wagon and began to fall behind from the start, not soon overtook the chestnut and they made the first mile in 3:06, the horse winning the heat in seven or eight minutes. The judges informed the drivers that better time must be made or no money would be awarded, and in the second heat the chestnut made his first mile in 3:03 and the heat in 6:04, the mare being about half a mile behind. She was too lame to go, and it was simply a fraud on people who bought tickets to call it a race.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

Has been the topic this afternoon, and the match is not yet concluded. Ten entries were made, some of them local marksmen, others now arrivals. The match is not yet decided.

The 50 mile race is the principal topic of interest as in that all can see for themselves how well it is run both on the part of the man and the horses.

As I close this for the train the rain is falling, but no one seems to think it will do any harm.

Produce Market Report.

Receipts of wheat continue very large, from a variety of causes, the principal of which is that the season has but just opened. Shipments to California by the steamship lines are regular and firm. The total export of wheat to Europe is about 5,000 tons less than at the date of last year corresponding. We can learn of no important transfers which have been made during the past few days, and it is consequently difficult to give accurate quotations. The rate is about $1 62½ per cental for export, and a slight advance for milling.

Owing to the low stage of the Willamette river steamboats are unable to ascend above the mouth of the Yamhill, and at Salem and points above a great deal of grain is in store. The Dayton narrow gauge railroad is hauling from the interior sections of Yamhill and Polk counties a great amount of grain, which is being brought to this city by a line of opposition boats. A Walla Walla gentleman, Mr. M. C. Moore, has leased the W. T. & L. Co's warehouse at Astoria and has bought over 4,000 tons of Walla Walla wheat, which he is shipping there direct and will hold. Farmers and warehousemen everywhere seem to have confidence in a rise in the market, and many are buying to hold over on speculation.

The San Francisco market is reported dull, buyers and sellers being unable to agree upon the price. A great deal of the California crop is going into warehouse to await higher prices.

In flour we hear of but one important contract for export, and as the rate is reserved it is not possible to give export quotations. We can quote standard brands at $5; county extra, $4 50; superfine, $4 50@4 75.

Oats are more or less unsettled, but a good quality is in demand and will command a good figure. Holders have confidence in the market and are unwilling to sell at rates now ruling. For milling our market is about $1 25@1 30; for feed, $1 20@1 25.

We can learn of no sales in barley during the week; but hear of one offer of $1 40 per cental for brewing, which was not accepted.

The market for potatoes is dull and no important sales have occurred for some time. Our market is quotable from first hands at 70 to 90c per one hundred pounds.

Choice butter for family use is scarce and easily commands the highest rates—18 to 25c per pound. A second class quality is abundant and is dull sale at from 10 to 16c.

Cheese stocks are large and the market is consequently weak. We can quote at 12½ to 20c, depending almost entirely on quality.

Eggs find ready sale at 30c per dozen. There is an opportunity for some person who understands the care of poultry to establish a paying business on very small means by starting a "hennery" which could produce fresh eggs at all seasons of the year, near this city.

San Francisco Produce and General Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.

Receipts the past 24 hours, 6,000 qr sks flour, 44,000 ctls wheat, 200 ctls oats, 2,250 sks potatoes.

Wheat—California shipping is weak and quotably lower; sales of choice California milling at $1 65@1 67½; California shipping weak; prices favor buyers, but some sellers are holding off, hoping for an advance. Sales of 2,000 ctls at $1 62½; fair, mixed with barley, at $1 57½. Sale of 2,500 sks good Walla Walla at $1 67.

Flour—Extras are 12½ cts cheaper, in sympathy with wheat: Oregon extras $4 87½@5 37½; latter for Salem jobbing.

Barley—Fair feed, sale at $1.

Oats—Common feed, entire at low prices; sales at $1 15@1 32½; choice and extra choice, steady at full prices.

Corn—Small yellow, sales of choice at $1 17½; large yellow, green, $1 07½; large white, $1 10.

FOR SALE.

I WILL SELL THE FOLLOWING VALUABLE Breeding Animals:

PRIDE OF PELCHE or GEN. FLEURY DOLL, WHITE ROSE, TEMPEST, these are all full bloods. JENNIE a fifteen sixteenth blood. Dot has been bred to "Arabian Boy," the other three to Gen. Fleury. All appear to be in foal, and have proven No. 1 brood mares.

JOSIE, a yearling filly by Gen. Fleury, dam Jennie. This filly will be enrolled in the forthcoming Percheron-Norman Stud Book, having fine crosses from Percheron sires.

ELLA, a ⅜ yearling filly, by Gen Fleury, dam Maggie.

The above seven horses are the most valuable breeding animals of this Stock ever offered for sale on this coast, and will be a valuable acquisition to any section they may be located in.

I would prefer to sell the lot together

I will have part of the above number at the coming State Fair.

Also, "ARABIAN BOY," some Yearling Colts and Fillies, with the Shetland Ponies, and Suckling Shetland filly "Minnie."

It is 27 years since the Percheron stock was introduced in Ohio. The Secretary of the Ohio Board of Agriculture, J. H. Klippart, Esq., publishes in his recent annual report, read as received from the various counties in the State, to the following questions: Have the Percheron horses been introduced in your county? Do they give general satisfaction? To the first, 68 counties answer Yes. To the second 59 answer Yes, and 9 answered No. And from the same report the average price of good yeldings and mares for farm use were higher in Union county, where they were first imported, than any other county in the State. This certainly speaks well for the Percherons. Every horseman knows that a large well formed horse will always bring a good price in any market.
